MEDIEVAL TOWN BACKLOT SET

The Medieval Town set is located on Barrandov Studio's backlot immediately adjacent to the sound stages and other facilities. It was constructed on a 15,000 sqm (3.7 acres) area as a faithful replica of 14th-century Paris and the seat of the Knights Templar for the historical series Knightfall.

The set consists of 80 various houses reaching heights of up to 10 metres (33 ft), workshops, market, squares, courtyards, temple, city wall, gate and royal palace. Some of the houses include interiors available for shooting.

The backlot offers clear natural horizon that is not encumbered with any of the distracting elements of „modern civilization“.
